U.S. DISTRICT COURT

Extension of Time

I respectfully request for an extension of time, to properly prepare for the statements made. The court prepared the document on 7 May 2007 and the document was not mail until the 16 May 2007 not giving me the proper time to prepare. This is 2 working day before the document is due and I'm currently working. Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated Summary Judgment. If on motion under this rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

1. Plaintiff requests an extension of time through 7 June 2007, to properly go through the document and answer the court request.
2. The Plaintiff respectfully request time to dispute the defendant claims with facts, and ask the court re-visit the facts produce by the plaintiff.
3. The plaintiff wish to address defendant claims and bring forth the relevant issue that makes most of the defendant claims void.
4. WHEREFORE, the above-listed Plaintiff respectfully request an extension of time, until the 7 June 2007, to answer in accordance with Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Summary Judgment.
